Hiwassee College.

ORIGIN.

The Institution is the child of Providence, and not the result of human calculation. A number of citizens engaged Dr. M. Gibson, late a Professor in Tusculum College, to teach at Fork Creek Academy. His students soon became so numerous that they found it difficult to obtain boarding in the community. He then moved his school to Battle Creek Camp Ground, the church becoming a school room and the tents dormitories for the young men under his care. Robert E. Doak, A. M., took charge of the enterprise. Other teachers came to his aid. A College edifice was planned and erected, named after the U. S. Land District in which it was located. A liberal charter was granted by the Tennessee General Assembly. Finally, after various vicissitudes, the College passed under the care of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

DESIGN.

The founders of Hiwassee College designed to afford to young men of moderate means, an opportunity to qualify themselves for business, or to enter upon the learned professions. Cheap rates of tuition and board, on the one hand; and, on the other, thorough instruction, by experienced teachers. So far the design has met with signal success, notwithstanding our losses during the late terrible war. The motto on one side of our banner is,

"Cheapest and Best."

On the other,

"Si monumentum requiris circumspecte."

LOCATION.

The location proves to be healthy, and, in the main, very favorable to successful study. Two and a half miles from Madisonville, the shire town of Monroe County; and seven miles from Sweetwater, East Tenn., Va. and Ga. Railroad. We are free from many disturbing influences found in towns and cities. We are in the midst of a quiet community of substantial farmers who employ little or no colored help in their agricultural and domestic labors. So moral is the place that young men who wish to dissipate, find it convenient to go elsewhere. Such we advise not to come here at all.

OFFICES.

A Post-Office, Hiwassee College, has been established in the Institution. Our Express and Telegraph Offices are at Sweetwater, from which conveyance, horseback, hack or buggy, any day. Students from the West, come via Chattanooga; from the South, via Dalton; from the East, via Knoxville to Sweetwater, Tenn.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The Collegiate year is divided into two sessions of five months each. The Fall Term begins the first Monday in August and ends the Friday next preceding Christmas. The Spring Term opens the first Monday in January and closes the last Friday in May. Thus, Teachers and Students are allowed the Christmas holidays, and a vacation during the most enervating season of the year.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies old as the College itself, affording important aids in training the young men in declamation. Each society has its own hall, comfortable, neatly carpeted and well furnished, for its weekly meetings. Every student is expected to join the society of his choice.

THE LIBRARIES

Were greatly reduced by vandals during the war. By order of the Trustees, they were then consolidated, and placed in charge of a Librarian elected for the purpose of preserving the books with the utmost care. The number of volumes has been more than doubled the past year. Each student, on the payment of one dollar, has the use of all the books, standard and rare, during his stay at College. These books are now placed in a room newly fitted up for library purposes alone. And continued efforts will be made to add to these treasures, things new and old. Our friends should aid us in this matter.

IMPROVEMENTS.

During the year the College grounds have been newly inclosed and seeded in grass. Three dormitories have been built, and two of the Professors have erected homes for their families. In October the new church was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. Some new buildings have also gone up in the community. Plans have been made to make other improvements during the coming year. The prospect is every way full of encouragement.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

FACULTY.

J. H. BRUNNER, A. M., President.
 T. E. H. McCROSKY, Professor.

COURSE OF STUDY.

JUNIOR CLASS.

Caruther's History of a Law Suit; Stephen's Pleading;
Kent's Commentaries; Story on Promissory Notes.

SENIOR CLASS.

Hicks' Manual of Chancery Practice; Story's Equity Jurisprudence; Bishop's Criminal Law; Parsons on Contracts.

The student after reading the above course, is far from being a good lawyer. It is only expected to prepare him for admission to the Bar and leave him to complete his studies while building up a practice.

To read all the standard authors in the different branches of the law, would require three or four years of close application. The above course is complete in ten months.

Our reasons for embracing so few of the standard works in our course of study are: first, because the student can always obtain license from the Judges of the Courts even with less reading than we have marked out; and knowing this they are impatient to begin the practice, and hence cannot be prevailed on to remain longer than ten months; and second, after obtaining a license the student can further prosecute his studies during the first years of his practice, as it seldom occurs that a young lawyer is overwhelmed with business.

MOOT COURT.

As a part of the course, we have established a Moot Court, wherein the student is familiarized with the practical part of a law suit. Courts are opened and held and suits are instituted and tried with as much form as if actually in a legally authorized court. In these trials every Law student is required to participate as counsel.

TEXT-BOOKS

Can be had in Madisonville, or of the Professors at Publishers prices. Often they can be had, second hand, of students at reduced terms.

TUITION FEES FOR FIVE MONTHS.

| Board only..... | 1 50 |

These terms obtain at the boarding house and in private families. Dormitories are on the College grounds, in which students mess or bachelor at one-half the above rates. Thus we are prepared to accommodate the want of different classes at terms truly low for the times.

DIPLOMAS.

Students completing the Course, excepting the Classics, will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science. Those completing the Shorter Course, the one prescribed by the Trustees, will be honored as Bachelors of Art, and after three years spent in literary pursuits, may become as Masters of Art. The A. M. degree will also be conferred hereafter upon all who thoroughly master the Longer Course, the one laid down by the Faculty, as above. Each candidate will pay $5 to defray the expenses of parchment, case, &c.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

As many of the students, after finishing their literary studies, desire to qualify for the practice of Law, and as they prefer to remain where they can consult our Library and participate in the weekly debates, we have organized, for their benefit, a Law Department, under the charge of T. E. H. McCroskey, Esq., late of the Law School, Cumberland University, Lebanon. Rates the same as charged by Lawyers in their offices, $100 for the entire course. Diplomas awarded on completion of the course.

DISCIPLINE.

Government is a matter of prime necessity. Here, the control of the students is committed to the Faculty. It is of a paternal character, sympathizing, kind and firm. Each student is received as a gentleman, and expected to deport himself as such, and to apply himself with due diligence to his studies. Cases of idleness and misdemeanor will be properly punished, by expulsion, if mild means fail to produce reformation. It is assumed that the object of parents in sending their sons to Hiwassee College, is to have them prepared for important positions of honor and profit in this life and for a state of bliss hereafter. Hence, an effort is made to induce students to act from correct principles. The necessity of obedience is made manifest to all, and all are required to comply with our reasonable demands. The younger members of the school are, during recitation hours, always under the immediate eye of a Professor in charge of the Preparatory Department. The more advanced students are allowed to study in their own rooms, and to report to their teachers, at regular hours, for recitations. This system we have found, after an experience of twenty five years, as the best for all concerned.

REGULATIONS.

1. Each student on entering College promises on honor to try to advance the interests of himself and of all his fellow students. He then enrolls his name and residence, with the name and residence of his parent or guardian, to whom the Faculty may address all needful communications.
2. Each student will be expected to pay one dollar for access to the Library during his stay at College, and further, for his own good, he will be expected to join one of the Literary Societies.
3. Each student will daily be merited and demerited as his deportment and recitations may require: the highest average number he can attain, is one hundred; and should his average fall below fifty, he will be expelled.
4. Much precious time having been lost by unnecessary visits "to town," it is required that no student shall visit Madisonville or Sweetwater more than once a week, and not then without permission from one of the Faculty.
5. Every session a contingent fee of one dollar will be expected of each student, in advance, for making fires, sweeping rooms, and other necessary expenses.
6. Students on entering will be charged for the remaining part of the terms; and no deductions will be made except for protracted sickness or other sufficient cause; and no student will be allowed to withdraw except on application of his parent or guardian, in person or by letter.
7. Sons of ministers whose incomes are derived from their churches, and worthy young men preparing for the ministry and properly vouched for, will pay half rates for tuition. Boys of good character, in straitened circumstances, will not be turned away on account of pecuniary embarrassment.
8. Each student will be expected to attend Sunday School and divine worship in the Chapel. Leave will cheerfully be granted, on application of parent or guardian, to attend the Presbyterian, Baptist, Lutheran or Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, in the vicinity.

9. During study hours, each student is expected to be quiet; but, during hours for recreation, we advise lively exercise and healthful sports.

10. Injury to College property, unless promptly repaired, will be charged to the proper party, at double the cost.

SUNDRIES.

The buildings are of solid and substantial mold, erected for useful ends and not for show. The grounds embrace several acres, affording room for youthful plays in intervals of study. Two Professors, with their families, reside upon the premises; one rooms in the Boarding House; a fourth lives half a mile away; another, in Madisonville; all watching with paternal care over the College community.

A grand view of the distant Alleghanies raises in the mind the ennobling emotions of the sublime and the beautiful.

A gushing spring of excellent water bursts from the rocks near the College and the Church; a fountain of delight to boys of burning brow.

Around are native forests of stately trees where the young Demosthenes may pour forth his eloquent strains, or sit, "In meditation, fancy free."

Commencement exercises, May 29th, 1874. Addresses to the Literary Societies, and from the Alumni, with orations from the graduating class.

THE GREAT AMERICAN COFFEE POT.

AS

NEVER FAILS TO MAKE
MOST DELICIOUS
COFFEE

THE CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

Perfection in the Art of MAKING COFFEE at last Attained!

It is the only Automatic Steam Coffee-Maker ever invented!
Simple in Construction; Perfect in Operation; Marvelous in Economy!

This household wonder makes Coffee by steam and boiling water combined; it never boils over; makes its own hot water; does its own dripping, and in the shortest time on record distills Coffee as clear as wine; extracts all the strength and retains all its aromatic and nutritious properties.

The Only Perfect Working Coffee Pot Ever Offered to the Public!

And yet so simple in Construction and Operation, that even a child cannot fail to make most delicious Coffee.

DIRECTIONS—Fill the Coffee Pot with hot or cold water up to about one-half inch below the bottom of the strainer. Never submerge the Coffee, as tannin will burk in the cup. Fill the strainer half full of pure ground Coffee—boil 5 to 10 minutes on a quick fire, when the Coffee will be ready for the table. If only a small quantity of Coffee is wanted, pour hot water over the ground Coffee in the strainer in the French style. After using rinse out and invert to dry. Boil out with soda water when the Pot requires cleansing. By following these simple directions you will always have a sweet Coffee Pot, and a most fragrant Coffee.

When the Coffee is made, the silken hull, the fibrous matter, and its bitter and astringent property are left suspended in the fine wire strainer above, while at the same time the CLEAREST, the PUREST, and the MOST DELICIOUS COFFEE EVER DRANK flows boiling hot from the reservoir below.

It contains two hundred and fifty striking and beautifully executed Portraits of the founders of every branch of Methodism, including ten belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Every Methodist ought to be in every Methodist family. We want agents to Canvass every Methodist Church. Think of a $3 Weekly Family Journal, and a $5 Engraving for $3! This offer has never been equalled in the history of Newspaper Premiums. Agents who fail with other papers, books, or articles, are sure to make money with this. Experienced agents can make more money, and make it easier, with our Combination, than with anything they have ever undertaken.

We want both canvassing and local agents—those who will devote their entire time to the business and those who can give their leisure time and take orders about home.

WE OFFER WORK TO EVERYBODY,
OLD AND YOUNG, MALE AND FEMALE.

Send for terms, which, considering our inducements to subscribers, are unequalled.

MORE VALUABLE THAN TREASURY NOTES.

—How that old cynic, Sam Johnson, would have revelled through Webster's massive new Unabridged! How he would have floated over its magnificent letter-press and its illustrations, beautiful as new Treasury Notes, and much more valuable to the student.
